

A team of 22 students, 3 teachers and principal Dr Sangeeta Bhatia of KIIT World School, Pitampura visited the USA, Kennedy Space Centre, Washington DC, Orlando and New York. During the NASA camp, students went through interactive training sessions of multi-axis training, launching the space shuttle and visiting the Rocket Garden, IMAX theatres Apollo/Saturn V Center.

KIIT World School, Pitampura

Watching the actual launch pad was an exhilarating experience for students. Talk with the astronaut inspired the learners and gave them an insight of an astronaut's life. During their ten-day stay, the students also visited Smithsonian Air & Space Museum, White House, Parliament, Memorials in Washington & Statue of Liberty, Times Square, UN Headquarters and Empire State Building in New York.

KIIT World School, Pitampura